IMAGINE

Imagine if you will a mystical garden full of fresh fruits, olive trees and colourful flowers. This happy land gives you the illusion of getting lost even though it doesn't seem that big. Liberating, right?

Its mystery transports you back to the way life could have been. Familiar figures pass along the paths, stopping now and then to engage one another in intriguing conversations on history and culture. You find a spot to settle down. In one corner a minstrel plays harmonious chords on his lyre. In another, there is a discussion of free will. You approach the wise teacher. He explains that you have complete freedom to choose your own path in life and he insists that you must obtain happiness in the here and now. What do you do?

YOUR “PLEASURE GARDEN”

If you have imagined all of this, you have imagined Epicurus' "Pleasure Garden", a place where he and his students would congregate in the pursuit of achieving the most pleasant life possible in this world. Although they might be gone, their influence over people remains. Nearly everyone knows this story. Why don't you create your own? A fairytale with you acting as the blissful protagonist. The main Epicurean idea remains. All you have to do is add a modern twist to it. Stroll through the city of Athens and the region of Peloponnese as if in a dream. Enjoy traditional cooking classes with locals, olive harvesting, wine tasting with experienced sommeliers, a brilliant performance at an ancient theatre. Follow your bliss. Welcome to Greece.

THINKING ABOUT IT

If you think about it, your view of pleasure is far from the stereotypical one. For you, the most joyful life is one where you achieve inner tranquility by being content with simple things: food, wine and philosophical conversations with sophisticated friends. You decide that these are the things that have major impact on your mental well-being. A cool wind blows as you breathe in the Mediterranean ocean air. You find yourself appreciating the beauty of Nature, the fellowship of family, the ideal luxuries of living and the majesty of history. Quite inspiring, wouldn't you say?

DAY 1 STEP INTO THE LUXURY

with your arrival in Athens, the vibrant capital of Greece. As you explore the enchanting city center you will see the pillars of the Acropolis rise above the passing cars. Walk down the narrow streets and find your way to the exceptional Acropolis Museum. After you journey deep into the past of Greek culture, enjoy a delicious meal at a fine restaurant. Finish your day by spoiling yourself in a different level of luxury at a 5 Star hotel.

If a play is performed at Epidaurus the guided tour will be realised in the evening, followed by attendance of the play).

DAY 6 DISCOVER THE CASTLE TOWN OF MONEMVASIA

Taste numerous locally produced wines, made from ancient grape varieties and rounded off with delicious homemade bites. The smell of sea air as well as the soothing music will carry you back to the Byzantine period.

After exploring the ancient city of Messini continue your day back in Costa Navarino and its spectacular facilities. The options are limitless. Set in a landscape of diverse topography with breathtaking sea and river views, it is designed to surpass your expectations. As for the ladies, they can relax at the famous Anazoe Spa, winner of many international travel awards, which offers a full range of specialty treatments based on ancient health and beauty practices. Enjoy your fish over dinner at a greek fish "taverna".

Alternatively, experience first-hand olive harvesting (Oct-Nov), one of Messinia's most enduring agricultural and culinary traditions, as you participate in each step of the olive's journey from tree to table. You might as well attend a cooking class with the help of local women who will share authentic family recipes.

DAY 10 ON YOUR WAY HOME

A vision in white and blue. Crystal clear waters that sparkle in the sun. You're picturing what is widely recognised as one of the great travel meccas. Walk through the narrow alleyways in the village of Chora, pass by luxury hotels, gourmet restaurants, cocktail bars, the well known windmills and pose alongside Petros the Pelican, the mascot of the island. Enjoy an amazing full day champagne beach safari on a private boat hopping along the numerous beautiful beaches. Time for you to enrich this dazzling experience by paying a visit to Delos, an UNESCO World Heritage Site.

No Mediterranean getaway would be complete without a stop to the sacred island of light, where you can walk around the revival of the glory of the Greek civilization. Its history is totally entwined with mythology and so the ancient ruins, mosaics and statues will surely blow your mind. If you're up for more adventure there's plenty of fun to be found in a fabulous scuba diving training session followed by a relaxing sunset yoga lesson.

REWIND THE STORY

You remember the day when you discovered the history of Athens through a child-friendly experiential game named “Playing Gods in Athens”. It included theatrical and learning games, riddle solving, story telling and creative art & crafts activities. You then had a wonderful picnic at Philopappou Hill. Sudden cut; your memory takes you back to your days in Crete now. What about your visit at the Cretaquarium?

Your kids seemed very happy when they came face to face with hundreds of species and thousands of living organisms. They had a lot of questions when you arrived at the Spinalonga Island, which was a massive fortress for the Venetians and became later a leper colony. At some point you walked them through the ancient site of Knossos, the location of the notorious Minotaur whose story at its core is a heartfelt tale of love by Ariadne for Theseus. Such a romantic labyrinth. Such an amazing trip.

MEMORIES TO TREASURE

Let’s assume that you just got back home from your family vacations in Greece. You have a lot of memories to treasure, therefore you wonder what you could do with all the souvenirs from your unforgettable trip. You look at a huge pack of tickets, boarding passes, maps, bills and a bunch of digital pictures that you could print. Think of something more exciting than sticking it all in a box.

You have an idea. Is a scrapbook too traditional? It doesn’t have to be. Buy a notebook, colorful pens, stickers and some tape and start writing an account of each day of your once in a lifetime experience. You don’t have to be a guru to create an interesting record of your holidays and a meaningful handmade photo album that your family will treasure. In your diary, make sure you include amusing stories and photos that your children will look at one day and laugh. Use tickets as bookmarks so every time you open it, the memory of the trip will come back to you as a pleasant surprise.

YOUR TRAVEL MEMORABILIA

A local told you sometimes the Greeks would watch the sea for the return of loved ones. When you saw your family sailing, you thought that holidays are an opportunity not only to relax but also to enjoy new experiences that will make you feel invigorated.

This is how holidays in Greece feel like. Now rewind the story and live each moment again in true time. Then go back home and write all about it in your precious travel memorabilia.

DETAILED ITINERARY

DAY 1 ONCE YOU ARRIVE IN DOWNTOWN ATHENS

visit the mesmerizing Museum of Acropolis. Apart from the permanent exhibitions that will broaden your horizons, it also provides a restaurant on the second floor with a panoramic view of the Acropolis and a 700 square meter public terrace commanding a breathtaking view of the hills of Athens. The proposed menu includes a variety of hot dishes based on traditional recipes, seasonally updated. You won't be disappointed!

DAY 2 REDISCOVER THE HISTORY OF CLASSICAL ATHENS

through a child-friendly interactive experience named "Playing Gods in Athens": an entertaining and educational activity for families with children that are looking for a fun way to learn how the beautiful city was born. The game includes learning quizzes, riddle solving, story telling, creating art pieces and it is followed by a wonderful picnic at Philopappou Hill where you will be tasting a variety of local snacks.

DAY 3 MOVE TO THE AMAZING CRETE

the largest and most populous of the Greek islands. Explore its mysteries with the help of a unique itinerary created for families that aim to come closer to Cretan nature and history through several outdoor and entertaining activities.

DAY 4 ENJOY A TOUR TO KNOSSOS

a magnificent archaeological area, holding remains of the Minoan city that thrived 3500 years ago and the famous palace dated 170-1450 B. C., excavated by Sir Arthur Evans at the beginning of this century. Its lovely ruins linger within the mountains beneath the myth of the Minotaur, trapped by a king and conquered by love. After you have lunch at a hand-picked restaurant, you shall visit the "Cretaquarium" in order to explore the Mediterranean sea world. Come face to face with hundreds of species and thousands of living organisms and be fascinated by their behaviour as they reveal the wide variety of shapes, colors, habits and needs of their own world.

DAY 5 VISIT "AROLITHOS"

a unique traditional village which is built on the slope of a mountain in the wild Cretan landscape. It has taken its symbolic name ("arolithos" is a Cretan word which means a rock's hole gathering rainwater), because it encompasses the tradition and beauty of the island, just like the hole in the rock gathers water. Here you will escape from the tiring everyday routine and you will be taken back to the past, where everything used to be pure and genuine. While wandering around the narrow alleys you will explore the complex which includes art workshops, traditional houses, a tavern, a cafe and you shall enjoy some cooking activities with your family.

DAY 6 YOU WILL BE SAILING TO DIA ISLAND

which is an uninhabited islet that looks like a giant lizard when viewed from the city of Heraklion. There is also a legend that a giant lizard tried to destroy the island of Crete, but Zeus turned it into stone with a thunderbolt, thus creating the island. There are plenty of things to see there since it is part of the European Network of Nature due to its status as a biotope for endemic plants and for plants with low dispersal within the Southern Aegean. It is also a vital breeding site for seabirds and species associated with coastal cliffs and one of the most important nesting areas – monk seals are also often seen by local fishermen around the shores. If you are lucky enough, you might see them yourself!

DAY 7 EMBARK ON YOUR SAIL

to the island of Spinalonga. You shall explore the historic island that was a massive fortress for the Venetians and became later a leper colony. The unique experience will be followed by tasty lunch at Plaka, a quiet traditional Cretan village located in the stunning setting of the Mirabello bay.

DAY 8 ENJOY A CLEANSING AND NOURISHING TREATMENT

You will have no worries for the rest of your trip as you will be spending your last day getting pampered in Aegean spa. Enjoy a cleansing and nourishing treatment with a herbal scrub made from Cretan sea salt and olive oil – this locally inspired therapy is incredibly relaxing. While you are at it, your kids will be having fun at a recreation park.

DAY 9 WAVE GOODBYE TO GREECE

You will return to Athens airport and catch your flight back to your home destination. This is the perfect opportunity for you to create an amazing travel memorabilia that your family will surely treasure.
